

MASTERCLASS SONG-DUO (VOCALS & PIANO)

LECTURER:

Prof. Hartmut Höll

Hartmut Höll's playing is characterized by a sense of sound, sensitivity, and the ability to think "behind" the notes, to create atmosphere, and to let the listener experience sensations directly in the timbres. For decades he has been one of the most sought-after piano partners and knows the value of chamber music collaboration. From 1982 to 1992 he was Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau's partner. Lieder recitals at the Salzburg Festival, the festivals of Edinburgh, Florence, Munich, Berlin and Tokyo, in New York's Carnegie Hall established the much praised collaboration. For many years he has accompanied Renée Fleming in concerts in Europe, Australia, Asia and the USA. For more than four decades he has been associated with the singer Mitsuko Shirai in a song duo. Both have set standards of song interpretation with worldwide concerts and CDs. As a professor at the Karlsruhe University of Music, Hartmut Höll is very close to the young generation of artists, having previously held professorships in Frankfurt and Cologne. Graduates of his teaching continue the tradition as professors today - in Salzburg, Vienna, Paris, Manila, Montevideo and many other places in the world.
