

MASTERCLASS CLARINET

INSTRUCTOR:

Prof. Georg Arzberger & Prof. Martin Spangenberg

Georg Arzberger has been a professor of clarinet at the University of Music and Performing Arts Munich since the summer semester of 2019, and prior to that, he held the same position at the University of Music Karlsruhe since 2017. However, one of Georg Arzberger's great passions is chamber music, in which he regularly performs with musicians such as Wen-Sinn Yang, Ingolf Turban, Sebastian Schmidt, Dag Jensen, Andrea Lieberknecht, and Julian Riem.

Martin Spangenberg is a professor at the Hanns Eisler School of Music Berlin and the former principal clarinetist of the Munich Philharmonic Orchestra. He served as the longtime artistic director of the International Chamber Music Course of "Jeunesses Musicales" in Weikersheim and as a lecturer with the National Youth Orchestra. He has taught at numerous courses both domestically and internationally. He has also made various CD recordings, including complete clarinet concertos by Weber, as well as two concert overtures as a soloist and conductor.
