

MASTERCLASS VIOLIN INTENSIVE

INSTRUCTOR:

Prof. Markus Wolf

born in Vienna, has been the first concertmaster at the Bavarian State Opera in Munich since 1989. After studying in Vienna with Günter Pichler, former leader of the Alban Berg Quartet, he received instruction from Max Rostal, Nathan Milstein, and Oscar Shumsky. Markus Wolf is a highly regarded chamber musician. As a violist, he recorded Mozart's string quintets with the Alban Berg Quartet for EMI. With his "Beethoven Trio Wien," he has recorded numerous CDs and received the ECHO Klassik Award with the "Munich Horn Trio." As the first concertmaster, among others, with the Vienna Symphony, the London Symphony Orchestra, and the Munich Radio Symphony Orchestra, Markus Wolf has performed on prestigious stages worldwide, including Carnegie Hall in New York, the Vienna Musikverein, the Elbphilharmonie in Hamburg, and the Berlin Philharmonie, under renowned conductors such as Carlos Kleiber, Sir Colin Davis, Zubin Mehta, and Kirill Petrenko. Professor Markus Wolf, active at the Munich University of Music since 2008, regularly conducts masterclasses both domestically and abroad (including Japan). His students have extensive audition successes in renowned orchestras worldwide. Markus Wolf plays the "Vollrath Stradivarius" from 1722.
