L'Art de l'Expression – French Music on the One-Keyed Transverse Flute
The masterclass focuses on the French repertoire for the one-keyed transverse flute. Through the study of selected suites and sonatas, participants will explore historically informed articulation, phrasing, ornamentation, intonation, and musical rhetoric. The aim is to combine technical security with a free and expressive approach to performance. The programme will be complemented by exercises focusing on tone production, technique, intonation, posture, and breathing, as well as physical training to improve the physical foundations of playing and enhance musical expression. Accompaniment will be provided from 26 June onwards. Each participant will receive four 45-minute individual lessons. Please indicate your repertoire no later than four weeks before the beginning of the course and bring the required sheet music with you.
